MR. HILBURN WANTS TOTAL PROHIBITION

Putnam County Representative Proposes Amendment to Article 19 of Constitution.

TALLAHASSEE, April 9.—The feature of the session of the House that proved of sufficient importance to attract the attention of the members as if by magnetic force, came in the shape of a joint resolution introduced by Mr. Hilburn of Putnam, proposing an amendment to Article 19 of Section 1 of the Constitution of Florida, in order to permit the enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages in the State. Although for one and the same object this resolution is quite different in method of procedure from the bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Beard of Escambia Wednesday afternoon in that it attacks the constitution for an amendment, while the Beard bill is brought to prove the constitutionality of the clause of the constitution providing for local option in Florida. The resolution was introduced, read and referred to the committee on constitutional amendment. This will be the first matter taken up by the committee, the personnel of which has not yet been made public by the Speaker.

Proposed Amendment.

The resolution as offered by the gentleman from Putnam is as follows: "Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida: That Article XIX of the Constitution of the State of Florida be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Article XIX, Section 1—The manufacture and sale, or other disposal, of all intoxicating liquors and beverages, whether spirituous, vinous or malt, are hereby forever prohibited in the State of Florida, except alcohol for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes, the sale of which alcohol and wine for the purposes aforesaid, shall be regulated by law.

"Sec. 2—The Legislature shall enact suitable laws for the enforcement of the provisions of this article.

"Sec. 3—Until the Legislature enacts laws for the enforcement of this article, any violation of the provisions of this article shall be punished by a fine of not less than $250 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than thirty days nor more than six months."

Mr. Davis' Plan.

Following today's session Mr. Davis of Madison stated that he was introducing a bill which he would introduce at an early date in the House, providing for the regulation of the sale of liquors in the "wet" counties of the State. It is his belief that the sale of liquor should be conducted along the dispensary plan and doing away with the open saloon and the "treat" habit. He is strongly opposed to any attempt to divest a municipality of any right of self-government, and therefore considers a regulation of the sale of liquors the better and wiser plan.

The House was called to order at 3 p. m. by Speaker Farris.

A message from the Governor transmitting copies of the report of the trustees of the Internal Improvement Board regarding the condition of the State school fund was read, accepted and ordered spread upon the journal.

A communication from the Governor transmitting the report of the trustees of the State Reform School was received and ordered spread on the journal.

A communication from the Governor transmitting the report of the committee appointed to examine the claims against the State owing to the Indian war, was received and ordered spread on the journal.

A communication from the Secretary of the State transmitting several vetoed acts, with the Governor's veto message thereon, was received and ordered spread on the journal.

House Resolutions.

House Resolution No. 7, by Mr. Carn, providing that the messenger be required, with the assistance of the pages, to mail copies of the journal daily to such people as the members of the House may designate.

The resolution was opposed by Mr. Carter. "I don't want to pose as a watchdog for the treasury," he said, "but I say that those members desiring to send the journals back home to build up the foundation for re-election perform this service at their own expense. Only yesterday you were anxious to economize by cutting down the number of clerks for the committees, which is absolutely necessary."

Action on the resolution was deferred.

House Resolution No. 8, by Mr. Godfrey of Lake, that the Speaker appoint a committee of two to provide means for furnishing members of the House with distilled drinking water. Adopted.

House Resolution No. 10, by Mr. Dupont of St. Johns, that any member desiring to address the House shall be granted the privilege of the floor at a point in front of the rostrum whereon sat the Speaker. Adopted.

Concurrent Resolutions.

Concurrent resolutions were next read as follows:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 1, by Mr. Miller of Lake—Providing, the Senate concurring, that a committee of five, three from the Senate and two from the House, be appointed to investigate the work now being conducted by the Internal Improvement Board at Lauderdale.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 2, by Mr. Alexander—That a committee of five, two from the Senate and three from the House, be appointed to investigate the State Insane Asylum.

House Concurrent Resolution No.

SENATE HOLDS SHORT SESSION ON THURSDAY

BEARD RESOLUTION AS TO SENATORS' ELIGIBILITY FEATURE.

Senators McCreary of Alachua and Williams of Levy introduce Several Bills.

TALLAHASSEE, April 9.—Resolutions introduced by Senator Beard of Pensacola, attacking the eligibility of Senator Louis C. Massey of Orlando and of Senator S. N. Withers of Lady Lake, provided the feature for the Senate session yesterday.

The resolutions were referred to the committee on privileges and elections. It is claimed that Mr. Massey is an attorney for the State Railroad Commission, and that Mr. Withers is a land agent for the Internal Improvement Fund trustees, and so ineligible under the constitution.

An unusual bill was that introduced by Senator Williams of Cedar Key, which makes it a misdemeanor for negroes to attend white gatherings or vice versa. Servants and officers of the law are exempted.

Routine Proceedings.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock. Roll call showed thirty present. Prayer was offered by the chaplain.

Resolution No. 11, Massey—Amend rules to make afternoon session begin at 4 o'clock, adopted.

New bills were introduced as follows:

No. 26, by Harris of Key West—Creating State board of pensions. To pension committee.

No. 28, by Leggett—For relief of boards of public instruction in certain counties. Judiciary B.

No. 29, by Henderson—Relating to drawing of jurors for circuit courts. Judiciary A.

No. 30, by McCreary—Relating to entry in enclosure to hunt or fish. Fish and game.

No. 31, by McCreary—To punish persons intimidating witness.

No. 33, by Williams—Prohibiting attending of gatherings of whites by negroes and vice versa. Judiciary A.

No. 34, by Williams—Relating to railways and railroads.

No. 35, by Williams—Regulating secret society meetings. Judiciary B.

No. 36, by Dayton—Directing county treasurers to direct surplus in fine and forfeiture fund into county educational fund. Judiciary A.

No. 37, by Leggett—Prohibiting catching of food fish in Crystal river except with hook and line. Fish and game.

After a short recess the committees were announced.

Resolutions as follows were introduced:

A communication was received from Claude L. Enloe, announcing opening of "Pineapple Lobby."

Adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. Friday.

By Mr. Thornton of Volusia—That a committee be appointed to conduct an investigation of the condition of students of the institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind at St. Augustine.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 4, by Mr. Reister of Hamilton—That a committee of three, one from the Senate and two from the House, be appointed to investigate the State Institution for the Insane.

Joint Resolutions.

House Joint Resolution by Mr. Hilburn of Putnam—Providing for constitutional amendment in the interest of prohibition of sale of liquor.

The Speaker announced that the introduction of bills by call of counties was in order. Mr. Carter raised the question if same was proper, as no standing committees had been announced. The Speaker responded

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN PETITIONING CONGRESS

They Are Deeply Interested in Hosiery and Glove Schedule of Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The women of the nation have become more interested in the Payne tariff bill than perhaps any other piece of legislation ever under consideration by Congress.

The hosiery and glove schedules, to which over 1,000,000 women have protested by actually signing their names to petitions, interests them particularly. They are also aroused to a high pitch of indignation at the prospect of paying higher prices for millinery. The tax on toilet articles is increased from 50 to 60 per cent, as the women will find out in a practical way soon after the measure is enacted into law. Women are interested in the price of groceries and in children's clothing, all of which will be more expensive when the Payne law day gets around.

Many of the largest Republican newspapers have denounced the increased duties on gloves and hosiery, while the Democrats are putting up a fight for the women never before equalled.

Petitions signed by the women are coming into Washington on every train. There is more than a mile of women's signatures attached to these documents. The department stores of the larger cities of the country have placed petitions in their stores which are daily being signed by thousands of shoppers. Five hundred thousand women signed petitions in Chicago in one week against the glove and hosiery paragraphs of the Payne bill. Within a period of less than ten days a similar record was made in New York City. From the villages, too, are coming protests.

It has taken some time for the real significance of the Payne bill to be fully understood in all sections of the country. It is not believed here that the climax in public resentment has even yet been reached.

One of the most criticised features of the Payne bill is Schedule K, in which the heavy hand of the taxgatherer is chiefly raised against the women and children. The charge is made by men thoroughly acquainted with the intricacies of the trade, that this part of the bill constitutes one of the most unreasonable series of advances in the whole measure. The increase is heaviest on the cheaper grades—the ones the poor must use. The class of stockings bought by the rich valued at more than $5 per dozen pairs, are in both the Dingley law and Payne bill under a 55 per cent duty. That is, the socks of the poor man pay 85 per cent tax; those of the rich man—those illuminated ones with the open-work effects—pay only 55 per cent tax.

It is charged the hosiery manufacturers needed no more protection. In 1890 the United States imported from Germany $6,016,000 worth of hosiery and made $19,162,000 worth. The imports were then a little over a third of the home product. In 1908 we imported $6,645,000 worth of hosiery, and made $50,000,000 worth. The imports were a little over one-eighth the home product, which, it is being pointed out, is striking illustration of the fact the American manufacturers are not being run out of business.

Yet the American manufacturers of the New England district went before the Ways and Means Committee, complained that their present protection, which averaged 65 per cent, was not sufficient, demanded that they be given 20 per cent more. They said they were on the verge of ruin; the Germans were driving them out of business in the home markets. In contrast to this situation the figures show American manufacturers are driving the Germans out of our markets.

The manufacturers also told the committee that hosiery mills in this country are generally closed down or working three or four days a week. The New England Dry Goods Association declares that at the time that pathetic appeal was made the mills were all running with full forces.

Maniac Kills Woman, Then Blew Off His Head

AURORA, Ill., April 9.—John Anderson, a plumber, becoming violently insane yesterday, armed himself with two pistols, a shotgun and three bombs and killed Mrs. John McVicker, narrowly missed slaying her husband, wounded Mrs. John Belford and then committed suicide, blowing his head off with a shotgun.

He started out to kill the inhabitant of the entire square in which he sold milkshakes, even concerning him had been circulated.

Anderson's mind had been affected for some time, and when he appeared yesterday with his armament of bombs and revolvers, he terrorized the entire square to which he had announced his intention of laying waste. The bombs he had strapped to his body. That his already weakened mind had completely given way was obvious. Doors were locked and barred and women and children fled to cellars and attics as soon as they saw the maniac walking along the street, scrutinizing the different houses, as if undecided where to begin.

Bullet Enters Woman's Heart.

His first stop was at the home of Mrs. John McVickers, probably his oldest and best friend.

With a pistol in each hand, Anderson began firing. The first bullet grazed Mr. McVicker's scalp. Mrs. McVicker ran toward the kitchen to protect her four children who were playing there. She fell dead across the threshold with a bullet through her heart.

Anderson then went to the home of John Belford, a few doors distant. Anderson's resentment was concentrated on Belford, whom he accused—(though neighbors say it was without a shadow of a doubt—of circulating slanderous stories about him. Mrs. Belford and her mother, Mrs. Amanda Minton, 89 years old and blind, were alone in the house. Anderson opened fire with one of his pistols on Mrs. Belford. One bullet inflicted a flesh wound and another shattered her arm and she fell to the floor. Mrs. Minton, hearing the shots, rose from the couch on which she had been resting and began groping her way across the room. The maniac, however, paid no attention to her.

By this time the neighborhood had become alarmed and men were gathering in the street outside. Anderson walked to the window and peered out. Then he returned to the center of the room, picked up his shotgun

Boy of Only Six Years Charged With Murder

UNION, S. C., April 9.—Though only six years of age, Fred Bell is a prisoner in the Union county jail with the grim charge of murder resting against him.

It is charged that the child Wednesday afternoon shot and killed Ethel Thomas, who was only three years of age, and because of this the murder charge was brought. It was alleged when the accusation was made that the boy tried to hide the body of the little victim in an apparent effort to cover up the tragedy.

It was said that efforts had failed and discovery of the dead baby girl caused the boy's arrest. He is the youngest prisoner ever committed to the jail in this county and probably holds the record for State

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

The Morning News is a new publication being issued by the Capital Publishing Company at Tallahassee, with T. J. Appleyard and Alice T. Appleyard editor and local editor, respectively. Col. Appleyard is also attending to the rather arduous duties of State printer.

February, which is considered one of the most disagreeable months of the winter season, was exceptionally mild in Florida this year. The percentage of possible sunshine, as recorded at the regular Weather Bureau stations, were as follows: Jacksonville, 71; Jupiter, 61; and Tampa, 62 per cent. For the State, there was an average of 18 clear days, seven partly cloudy days, and three cloudy days.

The social world has watched with much interest the movements of the new Mistress of the White House, and a general opinion prevailed, in Washington at least, that Mrs. Taft would institute many radical changes. Those who knew her best in her official life in the Philippines and in Washington clearly foretold what would happen—the taking upon her shoulders the full responsibility of the social side of Mr. Taft's administration as President.

Under the regime of the former gentle chataelaine of the White House there was a social secretary who shared in all social pleasures as well as attended to the clerical duties of the position. But Mrs. Taft has informed the social world that she does not expect recognition of her secretary, that she is engaged to perform the duties of a clerk and that she will not appear at all in the social lists of the White House. For this position Mrs. Taft has selected a young woman, a German by birth, of gentle parentage, who speaks and writes German fluently, as well as French and Spanish, and English of course, so that, through her clerk, the President's wife will be able to address her communications to foreigners in their native or a familiar language.

Editor Straub of The St. Petersburg Times has had a taste of real newspaperdom this week. He says: "The foreman of The Times job department, which is a pretty busy job, is under the weather and temporarily down and out. The newspaper foreman, who is a busy fellow himself, has to sort of divide himself between the two places. Then the star compositor was yanked to Tampa on the jury. And then his substitute failed to sub. And so the new city editor, who can also 'compose,' was drafted onto the composing force. So we have no job foreman, only half a news foreman, no 'leading composer,' no city editor, and the devil is to pay, generally. Really, you have no idea the fun there can be in the newspaper and printing business during such little spells as these, which—thank goodness!—come to all offices at times."

TAFT AND THE TARIFF.

If the revision of the tariff turns out to be a fiasco, the responsibility will be laid at the door of President Taft. At least he will be blamed by the insurgent Republicans and the Democrats, says a Washington correspondent.

Their position is that the Payne bill, now being denounced from one end of the country to the other, is wholly the handiwork of the Cannon Dalzell-Aldrich contingent. Foreseeing what these life-long anti-revisionists would do, the insurgents and Democrats endeavored at the opening of the special session to put these men, together with the rules which enable them to control all legislation, out of business forever.

The insurgents and Democrats, it is being recalled, predicted what is really occurring. They prophesied Cannon and his friends (which includes Payne and Fordney) would bring in, and then by the manipulation of their rules force on the public, a tariff bill that would be so overwhelmingly in favor of the trusts that it would cause the country to stand up and shout its disapproval.

The insurgents wanted Cannon and his followers out of the way so they could secure the kind of tariff revision promised by the Republican party. The insurgents lined up with the Democrats to bring about honest revision.

President Taft insisted that the tariff should be left in the hands of the old crowd. It is admitted on all sides that it was his action in using all the power he could muster in favor of Cannon and the old rules that saved them from defeat. Therefore, it is contended, he should be game and stand willing to shoulder the responsibility for the action of the man placed in control of national legislation.

Having made the mistake of supporting men who time and again have proven their unfitness to make laws for the nation, President Taft is making a belated effort to secure revision along the lines desired by the people generally. While his good faith is not questioned in these efforts, his working methods are such that it is not believed he will be successful.

Although more than one million persons have signed petitions protesting against increased duties on certain articles, particularly gloves and stockings, President Taft has not asked the House leaders to alter these particular features of the Payne bill. He tells his visitors that he is working for revision of the kind desired by the people, but that he will not ask Congress to reduce any particular rate, he is willing to deal in generalities, but not figures.

While this method may be good diplomacy under ordinary circumstances, in a tariff war it does not make much headway for the consumer. Generalities fall on the politician like water on a duck's back.

President Taft said one reason he supported Cannon and the old rules was that he wanted no delay. Yet it was Cannon and the old rules that was responsible for wasting about the whole of last week. The House leaders delayed the tariff procession 10 days in spite of President Taft's statement to visitors that the people of the United States are losing $10,000,000 every day which passes before the new tariff law is put upon the statute books.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The New York Tribune says: "The beginning of this month marked a new and better era in Georgia, with the inhuman convict lease system abolished. The result will be the opening of about 1,500 places for free labor instead of felon slaves, the employment of the convicts on the roads and other public works, and an immeasurable gain in humanity, decency and justice."

The Chicago Record-Herald says: "Mr. Harriman insists that he and his associates are anxious to obey the laws, and he declares that he is not angry at the people who have begun suits against his railroads for violations of the interstate commerce act. All good people should join in general rejoicing over the fact that Mr. Harriman is not provoked because of a failure on the part of the Government to extend special privileges to him."

The Baltimore Sun (Dem.) says: "President Taft already has exhibited admirable qualities. And on every hand is heard the expression, Mr. Taft is so much like Grover Cleveland." He shows the same broadness of view, the same careful deliberation, the same high conception of the dignity of his great office, the same dignity in public utterance and the same tenacity and firmness of purpose. For it is apparent that Mr. Taft is careful to consider a question in all its phases, is slow to make up his mind; but his mind once made up on a subject, he stands like a rock—firm and immovable. In a single month the country has come to realize fully that Mr. Taft is not only the occupant of the White House, but that it is Mr. Taft who is President of the United States."

What with auto-suggestion, hetero-suggestion, psychotherapy, and other modern mental operations, with their divisions and subdivisions, warranted to cure disease and prevent sickness, the average man is liable to get confused and to wonder what it all means. But if he engages in healthful work, eats good food, is cleanly in habits and leads a clean life, he need not trouble himself about hyphenated scientific words of threatening aspect.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

MEN AND WOMEN
Use Kilmer's Swamp-Root to cure all urinary troubles, such as catarrh, inflammation, or ulceration of the mucous membranes, and not astringent, or of any kind.
By Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles $2.75. Circular sent on request.

JAPANESE CADETS.

Military School Exercises Include Hand to Hand Conflicts.

In the Japanese military school, where I saw a Spartan system of education, the exercises of the cadets with pikes, rifles and broadswords were not approached by anything of the kind that I had witnessed in Europe. It was fighting of the fiercest character.

At the end of the struggle there was a hand to hand combat, which lasted until the victors stood triumphant over the bodies of the vanquished and tore off their masks.

In these exercises, which were very severe, the cadets struck one another fiercely and with wild cries, but the moment a prearranged signal was given or the fight came to an end the combatants drew themselves up in a line, and their faces assumed an expression of wooden composure.

In all the public schools prominence was given to military exercises, and the scholars took part in them with enthusiasm. Even in their walks they practiced running, flanking and sudden, unexpected attacks.

The history of Japan was everywhere made a means of strengthening the pupils' patriotism and their belief in Japan's invincibility. Particular stress was laid upon the country's successful wars, the heroes of them were extolled, and the children were taught that none of Japan's military enterprises had failed.—McClure's Magazine.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

A Real John Doe.

"There goes a man who would be justified in changing his name," said the city salesman. "His name is really Doe, and John in the bargain—John Doe. Moreover, he has a sister Jane. I wonder what kind of joke their parents were trying to perpetrate on those helpless mortals. Doe as a surname was bad enough without adding to the offense by tacking on John and Jane. When I first met John Doe I didn't take his name seriously. I thought the man who introduced us was enjoying a little pleasantry at my expense or maybe at the expense of John Doe. I smiled. John Doe did not smile.

"You don't believe it," he said, "but unfortunately it is true. I am the famous Doe."

"Later I met his sister Jane and the rest of that particular Doe family. They assured me that there are a number of Does in town. I presume there are, but I trust that in most cases the old folks had sense enough not to christen their offspring John and Jane."—New York Press.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.

Lord Justice Mathew once tried a case in which a money lender sued a youth who had fallen into his hands. The plaintiff demurred at counsel's referring to him constantly as a "money lender" and protested that he was something in addition to that.

"What is the addition?" inquired the judge.

"Well, I'm—well, a dealer in—er—birds."

"Certainly—pigeons?" quietly asked the judge.—London Telegraph.

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Palme's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

FOR CITY MARSHAL.

To the Voters of the City of Gainesville:

I am a candidate for City Marshal, for re-election on April 13. I have served the people faithfully and efficiently, night and day, and my record is open for inspection.

If my service during the past year has been satisfactory I ask the support and vote of each and every citizen who is qualified. I can only promise the same service as I have endeavored to give in the past.

Yours for order,
BEN T. ARNOW.

I take this method of informing the public that I am a candidate for City Marshal at the election to be held on April 13, 1909. I respectfully solicit the support of all voters, irrespective of party affiliation, and promise to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the office should I be elected. Respectfully,

CHAS. C. WARREN.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

To the Voters of the City of Gainesville:

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for City Tax Assessor for the year 1909. Having been Tax Assessor for four years, I am fully prepared to fill the office, as my record will show, the city assessment having been increased in that time from a little over $600,000 to over $1,000,000. I was prevented from running for this office last year on account of sickness, and now respectfully solicit your votes.

W. M. BRADFORD.

To the Voters of Gainesville:

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of City Tax Assessor for the year 1909, in the election to be held on April the 13th, and most earnestly request you all to give me your vote and support for the position.

Thanking you for your past endorsement, I remain, Yours very truly,
B. R. COLSON.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 9

The Doctor Whose Patients Hang On

By Herbert Kaufman.

Out in China all things are not topsy turvy. Physicians are paid for keeping people well and when their patients fall ill their weekly salary check is stopped. The Chinese judge a medical man not by the number of years he lives, but by the length of time his clients survive.

An advertising medium must be judged in the same way. The fact that it has age to its credit isn't so important as the age of its advertising patronage. Whenever a newspaper continues to display the store talk of the same establishment year after year, it's a pretty sure sign that the merchant has made money out of that newspaper, because no publication can continue to be a losing investment to its customers over a stretch of time without the fact being discovered. And when a newspaper is able to boast of an honor roll of stores that have continued to appear in its pages for a stretch of decades it has proven its superiority as plainly as a mountain peak which rises above its fellows.

The combination of stability and progress is the strongest virtue that a newspaper can possess. Only the fit survive—reputation is a difficult thing to get and a harder thing to hold—it takes merit to earn it and character to maintain it. There is a vast difference between fame and notoriety, and just as much difference between a famous newspaper and a notorious one.

Just as a manufacturer is always eager to install his choicest stocks in a store which has earned the respect of the community, just so a retailer should be anxious to insert his name in a newspaper which has earned the respect of its readers. The manufacturer feels that he will receive a square deal from a store which has age to its credit. He can expect as much from a newspaper which is a credit to its age!

The newspaper which outlives the rest does so because it was best fitted to—it had to earn the confidence of its readers—and keep it. It had to be a better newspaper than any other, and better newspapers go to the homes of better buyers. Every bit of its circulation has the element of quality and staying power. And it is the respectable, home-loving element of every community—not the touts and the gamblers—toward which the merchant must look for his business vertebrae—he cannot find buyers unless he uses the newspaper that enters their homes. And when he does enter their homes he must not confuse the sheet that comes in the back gate with the newspaper that is delivered at the front door.
